

CALL FOR PAPERS

POSTER SESSION

International Nanofiber Symposium 2007

July 18-19, 2007, Tokyo, Japan

Venue: Ookayama Campus, Tokyo Institute of Technology

The executive committee of International Nanofiber Symposium 2007 is sponsoring Poster Session. The session will give an opportunity to young researchers and engineers to report on the very latest ideas and developments in areas of fiber science and technology. Papers enhancing our understanding of the fundamentals and application aspects of the nanofibers via analytical, experimental and numerical simulations are sought. Studies of all types of research areas are welcomed.

Prospective authors are requested to submit an abstract according to the attached schedule. All submissions or inquiries on the poster session should be directed to the following address:

1. Format of Submission (in Times New Roman 12pt Bold)

- 1) Please write your text within 1 page (including figures and tables).
- 2) Please write your text in Times New Roman 12pt. The style in this template should ensure that you achieve the correct format with a minimum of effort.
- 3) The camera-ready manuscript must be printed as PDF file, as greater than and/or equal to Acrobat 4.0, with including all the font as possible, and should not be secure-locked. This is because the page numbers and symposium information are written into each page. The maximum size permitted is 1 MB.
- 4) Please submit your paper by attaching the PDF file on the e-mail to nanofiber@op.titech.ac.jp.

1.1 Margins and Page Allowance

Please set out your paper on A4 size (210 mm × 297 mm) the same as this, with margins as described in the Table 1.

Table 1. Margins to use in this paper

Margin	Size
Left side	25 mm
Right side	25 mm
Top and bottom	25 mm

2. Deadline of Paper Submission

March 31, 2007. The acceptance will be notified on April 27, 2007 by replying the e-mail.
